NEW SALVATION ARMY LEADERS

ADJUTANT AND MRS. JAS. H. BAMBERY, TO TAKE CHARGE OF THE LOCAL SALVATION ARMY.

Adjutant and Mrs. James H. Bamberry arrived on the Sonoma to take charge of the Hawaiian Islands division of the Salvation Army. They succeed Major Milsaps, who had been here for the last two years, but returned to the mainland on the Ventura last Tuesday.Their headquarters will be in Honolulu, although they will frequently visit the other islands, where the Salvation Army is at work among the men on the sugar plantations and the people living in the outlying districts.Next Tuesday the Adjutant and his wife will leave on the Kinau to visit Maui.For several years Adjutant and Mrs. Bamberry were financial secretaries for the Pacific Coast province of the Salvation Army, with headquarters at San Francisco. The province included the states of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah and Nevada, and the territories of Arizona and Hawaii. They are not strangers to Hawaii, as the Adjutant spent two years here before, in the capacity of a field officer, doing missionary work on Maui and Hawaii.The local corps is giving the new D. D.'s a public welcome meeting tonight (Saturday) at their hall, corner King and Nuuanu streets. The Adjutant and his wife will also conduct meetings all day Sunday in the hall. They will also visit the penitentiary with their comrades, and conduct a meeting for the benefit of the prisoners.

BOARD OF EDUCATION HOLDS A MEETING

A meeting of the Commissioners of Public Instruction yesterday adopted the recommendations of the Teachers' Committee as published yesterday in the Advertiser with one change and took up the matter of the Hilo High School site.A letter from the Hilo High School people made the recommendation that the new building be built on the site of the Riverside School. The Commissioners adopted this report and directed that the Superintendent of Public Instruction be asked to prepare plans and estimates in accordance with this decision.Commissioner Al objected to the appointment of the Reverend L. B. Kaumehewa as substitute-assistant at Hama School, vice Miss Ahu. Mr. Kaumehewa is pastor of the Hana church and the objection brought forward against him was that his knowledge of English was imperfect and that he was hardly qualified even to act as substitute. The matter was referred again to the Teachers' Committee.Superintendent Davis stated that he had made certain suggestions to Superintendent Holloway as to changes in the style of school buildings for the Territory. These suggestions were for higher ceilings, better distribution of light, wider veranda and blackboards graduated to the height of pupils of various ages. "Otherwise," he said, "the buildings planned by the Department of Public Works are all that could be wished for and compare favorably with buildings of the same class on the mainland."The Committee on Kaliahwaena school site reported that they had investigated the various places in view and would soon render a report.It was suggested that a committee on buildings be appointed and that all plans and specifications of school buildings be referred to this committee for approval.

WEALTHY BRITON HERE FOR A DAY

One of England's most prominent and wealthy men was a guest at the Alexander Young Hotel the day the Korea arrived. He was W. H. North, who, with his wife and daughter, is making a tour of the world. Others of the party were the Misses S. K.
Peters and Messrs. J. Roach Hillier, J.
F. Williamson, and T. Lloyd, all of England, and P. Daubricourt of Belgium. The latter is the son of Minister Daubricourt of the Belgian Railways. The party is making the tour under the supervision of J. O. Hutchinson for the P. H. Cook excursion company.Mr. North was the first man to introduce the manufacture of mercerized woolen, cotton and silk goods into England, and it was through this that he made an immense fortune. He has retired from active life."Have ye any anisters, Mrs. Kelly?" asked Mrs. O'Brien. "An' what's anisters?" "Why, people you shprung from." "Listen to me, Mrs. O'Brien," said Mrs. Kelly, impressively. "I come from the rale shprong av Donahues thot shprung from nobody. They shprung at thim!"—London Tit-Bits.

FOR CITY'S BEAUTY

The Territory Will Set an Example of Civic Neatness.

Honolulu is to have civic improvement if the efforts of the Territorial Government go for aught. Governor Carter yesterday called the attention of Superintendent of Public Works to the condition of some of the sidewalks in front of Territorial property and suggested that the weeds and rubbish should be cleaned off and kept cleaned off. Superintendent Holloway fell in with the suggestion and as a result of their discussion of the subject a general effort will be made to set an example which will be followed by all citizens."We can not expect private people to care for their sidewalks and roads unless the Territory set the example," said Governor Carter. "The law does not provide for cleaning up private roads and walks and the thing must be done by the citizens themselves.
The city is by no means in the state I should like to see it in and it is time we made some effort to get it into shape."Superintendent Holloway immediately agreed to see to it that the Territory's walks and roads were put in first-class condition.Secretary Atkinson took the matter up and advocated urging residents to repair their fences or else do away with them altogether. "There is no need of fences, anyway, now," he said. "There are no horses and cows to wander over lawns and a fence is ugly. I don't believe in even hedges. A view of the beautiful lawns of Mr. E. D. Tenney on the plains or of Mr. S. M. Damon on Nuuanu will convince anyone of the loveliness of a lawn well kept, un-fenced and open in a wide vista.""Honolulu could be made more beautiful than it is now by improvements such as these and it is to be hoped that the example of the Territory will be followed by everybody."

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY CURES COLDS.

This remedy acts on nature's plan, allays the cough, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions, and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. It is famous for its cures over a large part of the civilized world. For sale by Hawaii.

CHANCE TO BUY A SEASIDE HOTEL

Anybody who wants a fine seaside hotel to run will have the opportunity at 12 noon today, in front of the Judiciary building, when Will E. Fisher, auctioneer, will sell for F. Wunden-berg, assignee, the Hawaiian Hotel Annex leasehold at Waikiki. The lease expires June 1, 1925. It covers 9.75 acres of land with improvements consisting of nine buildings. There is a splendid bathing pavilion upon what is generally conceded to be the finest sea-bathing ground on Waikiki beach.At the same time will be put up for sale the household furniture and fittings, surf boats, plants, etc., on the premises. For the right man, or corporation, or partnership, this sale gives the opening to have the most popular salt water resort in all Honolulu. Reverting to the item of bathing, it may be said that the beauty of the Annex beach is its graduating depth, which makes it safe for little children with the minimum of watching.

DISARMAMENT.

(By Ella Wheeler Wilcox.)

We have outgrown the helmet and cuirass, The spear, the arrow, and the javelin—These crude inventions of a cruder age, When men killed men to show their love of God,
And he who slaughtered most was greatest king.
WE HAVE OUTGROWN THE NEED OF WAR! Should men Unite in this one thought, all war would end.Disarm the world; and let all Nations meet Like Men, not monsters, when disputes arise.
When crossed opinions tangle into snarls, Let Courts untie them, and not armies cut.
When State discussions breed dissensions, let Union and Arbitration supersede The hell-created implements of War.
Disarm the world! and bid destructive thought Slip like a serpent from the mortal mind Down through the marshes of oblivion; and soon A race of gods shall rise! Disarm! Disarm!

ON THE LATE MASSACRE IN PIEDMONT.

Avenge, O Lord! thy slaughtered saints, whose bones Lie scattered on the Alpine mountains cold; Even them who kept thy truth so pure of old,
When all our fathers worshiped stocks and stones, Forget not: in thy book record their groans Who were thy sheep, and in their ancient fold Slain by the bloody Piedmontese that rolled Mother with infant down the rocks. Their moans The vales redoubled to the hills, and they To heaven. Their martyred blood and ashes sow O'er all the Italian fields, where still doth sway The triple tyrant; that from these may grow A hundredfold, who having learned thy way Early may fly the Babylonian woe.

—John Milton.

A witty but not over-industrious Celt was one of a street gang. A few minutes before noon, one day, he threw his shovel into the gutter, sat down on the curbstone, and proceeded to fill and light his pipe. Just then the superintendent of streets came around a corner and, seeing Pat, roared out: "Here!
What are you throwing your shovel for at this time of day?" "To cool it, sir," said Pat.One day as he was leaving his office in Portland, the late Thomas B. Reed was accosted by a stranger who had been imbibing so freely that he was "seeing things double." After apologizing profusely, the stranger managed to ask the congressman where he could get a car for the depot. Mr. Reed replied:
"Go to the next corner; there you will see two cars; take the first one; the other won't be there."
